Biographies

Adam J. Taliaferro - Adam is currently serving his first term on the Gloucester County Board of Chosen Freeholders. Adam started his journey as a Penn State football player whose playing days were cut short by a spinal cord injury he suffered after tackling an opponent headfirst in his freshman year. However, Adam was able to overcome his paralysis and was walking again in just four months. He graduated from Penn State right on schedule and went on to Rutgers School of Law. He is the Freeholder Liaison to the Department of Health and Human Services.

Sean Dalton - Sean F. Dalton has served as Gloucester County Prosecutor since 2002. Under his leadership, the service law enforcement provides to our communities has expanded. He has initiated units including Cyber Crimes, Veterans, Intelligence, and Arson. During his tenure, Prosecutor Dalton has promoted a philosophy of community involvement within the law enforcement community. He has formed several public-private partnerships such as the Gloucester/Salem County Security Initiative, Anti-Crime Partnership and the Mental Health Committee. Sean has followed in a long family history of public service.

Douglas S. Collier, D.E.A. Retired, Drug Initiative Coordinator & Law Enforcement Liaison, New Jersey Office of the Attorney General - Special Agent (S/A) Collier began his law enforcement career as a police officer with the South Greensburg Police Department. In April 1987, he started his federal career with the Central Intelligence Agency. In November 1990, S/A Collier accepted an appointment as a Special Agent with the Drug Enforcement Administration in Washington, D.C., the New York Field Division and DEA offices in Atlantic City, Paterson and Newark. As a Special Agent, S/A Collier has conducted voluminous investigations targeting international heroin and cocaine networks, money launderers, and organizations involved in trafficking steroids and other dangerous drugs.

Lori Tedesco Singly, Prevention Specialist of Educare, Inc. - Operating throughout New Jersey, with 35 years' experience, Lori Tedesco Singly of Educare encourages students to soar. She works with administrators, teachers and students in small workshops in establishing mentoring programs. She finds that involving students often motivates them.

Nick Ciabrano, Recovering Addict on The Reality of Addiction
